Issue: 23

Newsletter Returns from Hiatus

The UniBall Weekly has returned from its hiatus for the time being. We hope to keep trying to post newsletters bi-weekly if UB events allow for it. It's been a long time coming, but here's issue 23!

The UniBall Timeline

The UniBall Newsletter team is in the process of collecting past major UniBall events. We are going to be taking these events and putting them into a timeline. As each newsletter is released, the timeline will be updated with what you, as the users, remember from UniBall's history. These events can be anything from the Major events in UniBall, such as updates, server changes or big tournament/ladder wins to some of the more minor things that have taken place in UniBall such as a squad disbanding. We can only make this timeline as big as the information you give us, so start sending in your history!

Next Racing Generation

If you haven't heard or found it by now, there's a new racing league! NRG (created by bluddog) has been up and running since July and will complete their first official season today! NRG league brings a different aspect to racing by using the BR bot to enter races (much like MnM) which allows for captains in some drafts and other new race types (such as Phoenix and Ranked games). To register for this league, /w nrg-bot !register youremail@email.com and follow the confirmation link. A ref will then approve your account! For more information on NRG, visit www.ubnrg.com or view the forums at <http://www.uniballhq.com/forums/viewforum.php?f=58>.

Happy Racing!

Brand New Games Channel

After seeing numerous external game channels recently an inspiration hit me and Danger to create a games channel. The games channel includes a list of BRChat game channels and a list of free games with the websites. To join the channel type /join games.

This channel is designed to give the community a greater option of games to play on as well as advertising games that players may be missing out on. I hope this channel will help everybody. Please feel free to contribute any game you know to me (-Alien-), Danger or any moderators you see on the channel.

Channel: LiveScore

Quoted from: TheDevil

Although many of you may already know about the LiveScore channel I feel I should make a forum post to inform those who still do not as well as providing a place for recommendations and questions/answers outside of the channel.

For those of you that do not know about the channel; LiveScore is one of the busiest channels on BRChat at the moment and is the place for two things, automatic score updates for football (soccer) games around the world as well as the place where you can make virtual bets with virtual cash on upcoming games for both NFL and Soccer. The system has real betting odds and real teams whilst leader boards track the users with the highest profit.

Maria recently wrote an article about the channel in the Uniball Newsletter found here: <http://www.uniballhq.com/forums/viewtopic.php?f=4&t=12242>.

All information, commands and the 'to-do list' can be found at the following website: <http://sites.google.com/site/livescorebot>.

Go ahead, /join LiveScore

New features this season:

NFL Spread Betting

More Leader boards

Update Bet

+ Many More!

Happy Birthday to UniBallers celebrating their birthday (added July because there were no newsletters for that month):
